MESSAGE FROM ADVENTUROUS JOURNEY DEPARTMENT MANAGER HAKAN ÖZ

Esteemed Award Family,

Starting 2023 with the earthquake disaster reminded us of firstly the value of our lives, and secondly, the value of education and training. Just like the previous disasters, the biggest impact of this disaster was unfortunately on the education and training process. As the Award Programme, we have continued to contribute to the foundation of our future with the right planning methods after a rapid adaptation process with our perspective that always favours health first and education second.

The biggest impact of this process, just like the other challenges, was largely on Adventurous Journeys (A&J). As you know, the journeys take approximately 5 months, and the remaining 7 months consist of intensive preparation work for these 5 months. As in the A&J documents, this work is a qualified work plan in which we have prepared all kinds of fine details, in a way that does not create any security gaps, have prepared plans b and c, have created step by step and enlightened by the light of past experiences.

Hakan Öz

This year, due to the earthquake, we started the A&J in May, about 1 month later than usual, and we get the 5-month calendar into 4 months. Although this situation caused us to create a more intense A&J Calendar than usual, with the hard work and efforts of the A&J Coordinatorship, National Office and A&J Coordinatorship Supervisors who were ready in every aspect, we completed the 1st period with the Gold Category A&J on 25 June. Again, in this process, 7 journeys were made in İstanbul, 2 in Mersin and 1 in Ankara. I would like to thank all our volunteers who contributed to this intensive process, I am glad you are here.

Of course, we already started the preparations for the 2nd period immediately, first with the reporting of the 1st period, and then we will continue with the maintenance and renewal of technical equipment, we will accelerate our preparations with our in-service trainings, and we will wait impatiently for the first group to step on the route to implement our already ready plan.

By the way, you did not hear it from me, but there are some surprise changes awaiting you and the participants in the 2nd term, I hope you will be as pleased with these changes as we are.

Hakan Öz

Dear Volunteers,

Although none of us are ready for the challenges we have overcome as a country in the last 3 years, you are the ones who made us ready in a short time, your efforts to keep your participants in the Award with great devotion despite what you have experienced inspires us and increases our motivation day by day.

I congratulate you for your efforts in meeting the personal development needs of our young generation, which continue to grow day by day, and I applaud your volunteerism.

Hope to meet you in brand new journey memories.

Hakan Öz
